The MV Mag combines a modern and cutting edge perspective to the beauty, romance, and elegance of classic erotic photoshoots. And this mystery and allure is on full display here in issue 27!

We open with Karma—a shoot that perfectly illustrates our combination of old school glamour/hyper-modern internet culture! With four Stars, Bea York, Legendarylootz, Sarah Calanthe, and Wren Rhubarb, who all started sharing their exciting pics and vids on sites like Reddit and blossomed into amazing creatives on ManyVids. You'll be lost, in the best way possible, in their dreamy sensual pics.

Next we enter a different kind of waking dream for Mirage where we head to the hot hot desert with the hot hot Jayden Cole. You'll have trouble believing your eyes due to Jayden's remarkable and raw sexuality, but trust us... she's real and she truly is this exquisite.

Jill Kassidy wants you to shoot a few hoops and play with her—accept her invitation now to meet her at the Half Court. Jill's a real deal baller and you're going to love seeing her show off her athletic body in her fun and sporty photoset.

It's in the soft light of the dying day that we present the effervescent Heather Vahn in her otherworldly shoot, Dusk to Vaughn. Heather's shoot will show you that twilight is a magical time where any and everything is possible.

1. What's your fave sexy cosplay vid that you've made and why?

That's a tough one, but if I had to choose, I'd probably say Velma from "Scooby Doo." She's always been this nerdy girl, but in my version, she has a very slutty side.

2. What's your favorite way to spend a weekend off?

I rarely take weekends off, so if I am, it's probably because I'm traveling and headed someplace exciting. I absolutely love to travel.

3. What are your hobbies, and how did you get into them?

Does shopping count as a hobby? If not, I'm going to go with baking cookies.

4. What turns you on when you watch an adult vid?

A fun storyline.

5. How old were you when you had your first celebrity crush, and who was it?

I don't know how old I was, but it was Jonathan Taylor Thomas if that helps to give any indication.

6. What's one thing that can instantly make your day better?

It's going to sound cheesy, but my fans always make my day better. They're always so supportive, even when I'm having a bad day.

7. What's your favorite part of sex?

When he eats the booty like groceries... kidding! Being close to a special someone. I'm a hopeless romantic at heart.

1. How did you come to share your nudes online?

I was a bit of a “good girl” in real life (still am). You know... like shy, reserved, and overall pretty quiet. Posting my nudes online was thrilling, and I loved knowing tons of guys were seeing me nude and jerking off to me. Everything about it turned me on, and years later here we are, and I’m still at it.

2. What compliments do you like to hear about your work?

Honestly, the best feeling is delivering a custom vid and getting a rave review in return, I always have so much fun making content and knowing people enjoy it makes me so happy!

3. What’s one thing that can instantly make your day better?

A pedicure. It’s so relaxing I can just forget about any troubles.

4. Have you ever disliked something and then changed your mind?

Thongs.

5. What’s something you’d like to do on camera in the future?

I’d like to be a bit more creative in my roleplays, I absolutely love roleplay content and adding in more plotlines, and cheesy scenarios would be awesome.

6. What’s your most prized possession, and why?

My two cats. I can’t pick one cause the other one will be mad.

7. Do you live by any piece of advice or motto?

1. Have you gotten into any kinks, fetishes, or sex acts by being a content creator?

So many! I'm the kind of person who will try (almost) anything once. Discovering new fetishes and trying out new things on a daily basis is one of the things I love most about my job! I'm a pretty kinky person regardless but being an adult entertainer has helped me open my mind even further. For example, before working in this industry, I never really "got" the whole incest role play fetish, and I wouldn't consider myself a Mommy Domme, but now those two things are the majority of custom requests I get, and I love it! Femdom vids, in general, are something I've gotten a lot more requests for lately, and further delving into that side of me has been fun. Even when a particular fetish someone asks me for isn't something I would normally be into in my everyday life, I still love learning about what makes people tick and why. Human sexuality is so fascinating. Helping people explore their fantasies in a safe, judgment-free environment is very rewarding to me.

2. You began making content online and not showing your face, how has it changed now that your face is revealed to the world?

When I first started out creating adult content, I was still in university. Taking sexy pictures and vids was just something I did as a hobby in my free time. I didn't show my face because I didn't need to show it to have fun, and I didn't want to get recognized. Initially, I wasn't planning on making it my career. But once I finished my master's degree, being my own boss seemed a lot more appealing to me than getting an office job. So, I made adult entertainment my full-time job. I decided that I wanted to expand to other platforms and grow within the industry, but realized that that would be difficult to do without showing my face. I'd gotten pretty confident in my decision to be an online sex worker and was ready to justify that choice to people who might challenge it. Not everyone has the privilege to be open about their job in this industry and educate the people in their lives, but I do. So, I decided that it was time to take off my mask and stop hiding. Since revealing my face, I've been able to create higher quality content and have more intimate connections with my buyers. It's a lot easier to make videos when you're not constantly worrying about whether your face is in the frame, and it feels a lot more natural to me. While the mystery of not knowing who a performer is can be fascinating, I think a lot of people like seeing who they are interacting with and love seeing the expressions on our face when we're on camera! My earnings have grown since revealing my face, though I think that's mostly because I've been putting much more time and effort into my work now that I'm doing it full-time. I've also had the opportunity to work with some other gorgeous performers recently (like the ones in this mag!) which I would love to do more of later this year and next. I've been approached by some pro companies since revealing my face too but haven't accepted any offers yet. Maybe in the future!

3. If you could relive one moment in your life, which would it be?

None. I prefer to look to the future rather than the past. There have been many amazing moments in my life, of which I keep wonderful memories, but reliving them wouldn't be the same. That also goes for bad moments and mistakes. I believe that we, as human beings, are the sum of all our decisions and experiences, and I like the person I am today. We all make mistakes (I know I've made plenty!) but wishing we could relive those moments to make different decisions is useless. The best we can do is to acknowledge our mistakes, learn from them, and grow into better people. So, let's look at the future instead! There are so many things to do, accomplish, enjoy, experience! I'm very excited to write the next chapter of my story.

4. Do you like dirty talk? Why or why not?

Absolutely! Dirty talk helps to make fantasies come to life, and I love role play! I also think that communicating with your partner during sex is super important, and dirty talk can be a great way to get affirmative consent and make sure your partner is enjoying themselves. That's such a turn on to me! Even simple things like "Do you like it when I do X" during vanilla sex get me going, because it shows that the person actually cares about my pleasure, too. During kinkier scenes, when I'm Domming, I love using my words to help guide my partner further into subspace. The right words can be so very powerful...

5. At a party, where can someone find you?

If it's a house party, probably in a quiet corner somewhere chilling with the host's pets. I'm not a big party person, but I love animals. I don't drink alcohol, and I don't particularly like crowds, so I tend to avoid clubs. I'd much rather go to a rope jam than a bar! I love shibari and have been practicing more recently. I'm hoping to incorporate it into some of my videos in the future.

6. What's the last thing you do at night?

I always try to put away my phone and laptop half an hour or so before I go to sleep to wind down (though I don't always succeed, haha). Then I do some yoga/stretching, drink herbal tea, and cuddle with my kitty before getting into bed.

7. What's the hardest part about being an adult content creator? And the best?

The hardest part, for me, is the stigma. Even though my friends and family know about my job, and I try to be as open as possible about it, it can be hard dealing with judgment and hurtful comments from strangers. Whenever I meet someone new and the question "so what do you do?" inevitably comes up, I always have to gauge whether the truth will be accepted, make things awkward, or potentially put me in danger. Being truthful is often risky but having to hide a large part of your life from the world can be very isolating. That's why I think building (online) friendships with others in the industry is essential. Being able to talk about all the good (and bad!) things with people who are in the same boat helps a lot and having a support system like that is also be super motivating! My door is always open for industry peers who want to be friends, and I am working on building an online community and knowledge base for independent content creators to connect more easily and grow together. The best part about my job is the freedom it gives me. The freedom to set my working hours, be creative, work from home, say "no" to rude customers, take care of my mental and physical health, give people pleasure, travel, meet so many interesting people, be financially independent, and do something I love. It makes the negative aspects all more than worth it.

1. You became internet famous for sharing your pics on Reddit, what has been the Reddit community's reaction to you becoming an MV Star?

"Just as with every other NSFW Redditor, the subreddit just dies when they start putting all of their content behind paywalls and none of it on the subreddit." -u/IrrelevantLeprechaun

"Why does this thot appear on the front page" -u/rofllobsters

In a word: as only Reddit could, haha! It's impossible to please everyone, of course, but it's particularly difficult to please people whose ultimate boner killer is a woman profiting off her sexualization under capitalism. I think those who chafe at that concept would do well to remember that "making it" enables people in creative fields to produce more content, invest in supplies, and hone their craft—in this case, adult content. If freeloaders and amateur-only purists shaped a whole world in their image, a lot fewer people would be making the content they consume! Thankfully, a lot of people who found me on Reddit originally do wholeheartedly support me and have made a point of buying vids and commissioning new ones or voting for me in MV contests: I have an amazing Discord community (hi, guys!) and those are the people I'm trying please at the end of the day.

2. What have you discovered about yourself by making adult content?

God, I'm easy. So easy—I get turned on just from playing to the camera before my clothes are even off. And I'm accident-prone, haha. Fake cum is so slippery! Stay careful out there!

3. Who are your favorite poets, and why?

Yeats, who I'm probably obliged to mention because I was a weird teenager and wanted to get part of the third stanza of Sailing to Byzantium tattooed on me when I was 16. Plus, his poem The Second Coming, which is 100 years old this year and feels more relevant than ever. Doesn't it feel like things are falling apart? That "The best lack all conviction, while the worst / Are full of passionate intensity"? Then there's Jack Gilbert. In The Forgotten Dialect of the Heart, the language is just beautiful. And in What is There to Say, I love him for putting words to "this stubborn provincial singing in me" that persists in the face witnessing the same lovely wonders day in and day out. It's exactly how I feel about my coffee each morning, plants, and the way my girlfriend looks at me when they're just waking up or falling asleep. Every time. And always, Mary Oliver, for how she writes about the natural world, and for her classic poem Wild Geese, which is this beautiful poem of forgiveness and acceptance: "You do not have to be good … You only have to let the soft animal of your body love what it loves," is so wise and makes me feel seen from afar as a queer woman, in the adult industry, born from a long line of guilty Irish Catholics. Passed-down definitions of virtue are not what I want to measure myself by.

4. Where's the next place on your travel bucket list and why?

Iceland—it's so beautiful. And because I plan to meet with friends there and fuck them and make all kinds of wilderness porn!

> Passed-down definitions of virtue are not what I want to measure myself by.

5. What was the last thing you Googled?

Uh, “beat vampire in a fight” A girl’s gotta know these things.

6. What future career plans do you have?

I was lucky to collaborate quite a lot this summer and have some amazing vids coming out in the next few weeks: super sensual floral bondage with an amazing Domme featuring a homemade birch rod she beats me with—we made it from collected sticks at a local park!; a choose-your-own-adventure style taboo threesome with multiple endings; and a bunch of really hot and sensual G/G adventures with industry friends. It’s such a unique and fun experience compared to solo videos, and I’m so happy to offer more partnered and group content for my fans. My only concrete plans for the future are to continue pushing my creative limits and making more and more fun, weird, and wonderful adult content!

7. What’s your favorite part about this job?

The creativity, the absurdity and the orgasms are all fantastic, but the best part is being able to enrich people’s sexual lives. I love giving orgasms. I love exploring kink with someone. Nothing makes me feel better than being told that I’ve helped a client feel affirmed, accepted, or just bone-deep satisfied.

1. You're involved with the Pole Dance Marathon, what's your personal record so far for pole dancing?

I came up with the idea for the Pole Dance Marathon in February 2019. I trademarked it and obtained the web domain, and it's been a roller coaster, but I'm very excited! My vision is to put on a Pole Dance Marathon every year in various locations. I don't have a previous record, my feature shows typically last 18-20 minutes, so I've never had to pole dance for an extended period like this!

2. What's easier about being an adult performer than people would expect, and what's harder about being an adult performer than people would expect?

It's hard to tell if someone outside the industry genuinely cares about the performers when they make assumptions about what we struggle with, or if they're just being condescending and passive-aggressive because they're uncomfortable with the industry. I don't typically deal with that nonsense; even online, I don't seem to be much of a target. But I think battling stereotypes is part of what we sign up for, so it doesn't bother me much because I love what I do and the people I work with. The biggest challenges that people wouldn't expect is just the hustle of non-stop travel & having to be constantly "on" 24/7.

3. What are your most important rules when going on a date?

Hygiene, manners, and interest!

> "I always notice someone's smile first.

4. What's the first thing you notice about a person?

I always notice someone's smile first. If it's genuine or not, if they're making eye contact, if they seem happy...

5. For what in your life do you feel most grateful?

I am easily most grateful for my family and friends. My tight-knit circle of people who would go to the moon for me and know I'd do the same for them. Nothing in this world can take away that bond. It's important!

6. What does making your own content allow you to do that shooting for studios does not?

Shoot when, where, and how I want. You don't have to worry about an editor portraying you in a way that you didn't expect. I enjoy shooting for studios to mix it up and get to know people that I otherwise wouldn't have the opportunity to, but, incredibly, we are in control of our own career by creating our own content.

7. Where do you like to go to have fun?

I just moved from the beach to the desert, so I've been a little homesick, but I'm embracing my new environment! I started hiking and riding horses again, so that's been making me feel more at home. I LOVE nature.

MV Selfies WITH AliceBong

I could spend all day talking about: Psychoanalysis or discussing existential topics.

I feel like this is what I'm best at in bed: Missionary position.

A sex toy I want to try is: Handcuffs.

If I could live in any fictional world it would be: Same as now. The whole world around us is projected by our brain. We believe in a lot of myths and fictions. We don't know what people really are or what's in their heads. All we know is our brain's fantasy. So, I'm already living in this fantasy world.

The Best Pizza Topping Combination is: My perfect pizza is the largest amount of cheese that can be added and a lot of jalapeno or salami.

A relationship deal-breaker for me is: Closed-mindedness, arrogance, criminal record, and bad breath.

The cosplay I've done that has turned me on the most is: Classic Harley Quinn (not Suicide Squad). Her crazed attitude and submissive yet dominant personality just make it so fun to create some hot content.

This is the story of the first time I squirted: I was showering and happened to have my Lelo sex toy with me and soon felt an unbearable sensation that I could not control. It started in my toes and rapidly made its way to my chest. Within minutes I let out a huge gush of unidentified fluid and moaned of joy. I realized I squirted and screamed to my husband, "Babe I squirted!!!".

Dogs or cats, and why? Dragons! I am a cat and dog lover, but my bearded dragon will always be #1 in my heart. Reptiles do not get enough love!

The most spontaneous thing you've I've ever done is: Packing up and moving states! We did two interstate moves within 10 months (Oregon and California) and it was quite an adventure. It's was a wild road trip with us our 2 cats, dog and bearded dragon.

What I like best about myself is: I always have an interesting and usually really weird factoid about almost any movie. I like to research unknown facts, backstories, and behind the scenes information about every movie I watch.

The quickest way to make me happy is: Expensive Food. Fast Food. Fancy Food. Free Food. Spicy Food. Snack Food. All. The. Food.

If someone asked me for sex advice, I'd give them this tip: Buy my vids, show them to your significant other, and try to replicate some of the things you like best. ;-p

My fave books and movies are: Book... It would be between "Valley Of The Dolls" by Jacqueline Susann and "The Child Thief" by Brom. Movie... I can't pick a favorite, I will watch any and every horror movie ever made!

This quality in a man turns me on: A man who can watch awful movies with me while easting fast food one day and the next will buy me a $300 dinner before the opera.

1. What have you learned about yourself sexually since you joined the adult industry?

I have learned A LOT about my body since being in the adult industry! Performing on set with so many different people have helped me learn exactly what I like and what makes me cum... I'm always learning new ways to pleasure myself and others!

2. Outside of sex, what do you like to do for fun?

When I'm at home, I like to get cozy and binge watch TV shows or read! When I can, I really love to travel and see the world, trying new foods, shopping... and of course going out with my friends!

3. Do you ever talk to yourself? When and what do you say?

I talk to myself all the time, it's usually just in my head but if I'm tired sometimes it will come out!

4. Are you into toys to get yourself off alone, or are you a low-tech woman?

I always go back and forth between toys and fingers. I can make myself cum pretty easily with just my hands, but my Hitachi makes me so much more sensitive–which makes sex even better.

5. What trait do you like the most about yourself?

One of the traits I like most about myself is that I am sensitive.

6. What do you like to do on a rainy day?

If it's raining, I like to stay inside!

7. What single piece of advice would you give a brand-new adult performer?

I would tell any new adult performers only to do things you love to do sexually on camera, save your money, and take care of your health in all aspects!

8. What's your favorite thing about the adult industry?

My favorite thing about the adult industry is the community and the freedom. I have met so many friends and mentors in this industry, and I get support from so many of my peers! I also really love the fact that I have the freedom to work wherever I am and can make my career whatever I want it!

1. If someone wanted to seduce you, what would be the best way to go about it?

Believe it or not but most people are intimidated to come talk to me, even though I'm a very sweet girl. So, I admire assertiveness, confidence, and being sure of yourself (without being arrogant). This is possibly the best way to go about seducing me.

2. What's the weirdest thing you do when you're alone?

When I'm home alone, I stay up late and so something I call "insomnia shopping" and end up with loads of funny yet functional items for my home.

3. Is the sex you have on-camera different from your personal life?

It depends upon the person, off-camera is less about performance and more about connection, so I am a little bit of a romantic at heart, but of course, I'm still a dirty little slut.

> "I am all about the truth.

4. What's the scariest thing you've ever done, and why did you do it?

Nothing is really scary to me, but considering I travel so much, every time I fly, I get a super nervous feeling that my plane is going to be the one to randomly go missing or something.

5. If you could snap your fingers and instantly make the world better, what would you do?

I would wish for everybody to see each other as themselves, and maybe we would have less conflict and hate in this world.

6. Would you rather someone be honest and hurt your feelings or lie to protect them?

I am all about the truth, so I would like it straight up with no excuses.

7. Who is the sexiest person in the world, and what makes them so sexy?

What's sexy to me confidence, a big dick, ravenous in bed, intelligent, and honest... if you have those things then to me, you are the sexiest person in the world...
